The Millenders Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milleader entertained quite a party of young people very pleasantly last Saturday night. Music and dancing were greatly enjoyed by many of us, and at this occasion harmony and the poetry of motion were much in evidence. It was well toward the midnight hour before the pleasant affair closed. The Milleaders are noted as entertainers, and it is much regretted that the function Saturday evening was somewhat in the nature of a farewell, although their friends hope that this is merely a possibility. The visiting party were Mr. and Miss Mayme Cooley, of Vulcan, W. Va., Verola and Miss Cere Grothe, of Kenova, Mrs. Joseph Dameron, of Huntlagton, Mr. Burton, Maxie and Miss Fern Wright, of Toledo, and Mr. Rechar, of Huntlagton.

OLD PAPERS.

Interesting Records Connected with Louisa's Early History.

The NEWS takes much pleasure in herewith presenting to its readers verbatim copies of some very old papers now in possession of some of the lineal descendants of one of the individuals who figured in one of the transactions mentioned. To look upon the time-stained documents calls to mind many scenes and incidents of the long ago, and to hear these read is like listening to a voice out of the time and all but forgotten past. The principles in these various transactions where history is preserved by these musty records are long since dead, but their memory is living in the hearts of numerous descendants here and elsewhere. And what a throng of memories and recollections, as well as happy, the reading of these old writings will spring up in the minds of many. Who the actors were who figured in these various transactions is quite well known to the old readers of this paper. Some of these were doubtless contemporaries of some of them. The publication of the old records will probably afford means by which the younger generation will acquire valuable knowledge concerning their progenitors.

The NEWS would, if it were possible, present in these columns facsimile of these ancient manuscripts. They are a quaint collection. The paper must have been genuine "rag." Its texture is fine and, though it has been handled much, it shows but little sign of wear. The ink, too, must have been good, the writing, evidently done with a quill, being very legible, having faded but little. Some of our ancestors made their own ink. They had found that oak bark coze and copperas added to water made a very good ink, not knowing that the oak contains tannin and the copperas iron, ingredients used in the manufacture of ink today.

Here is a document, possessing very decidedly a local interest. Read it, ye who are white of hair or gray of beard, and see if any of you remember of hearing of Reuben Canterbury, John Burgess or J. R. Ward. It's a transcript of a part of the proceedings of the board of trustees of the town of Louisa.

"On motion of the Trustees of the town of Louisa ordered that there be allowed the sum of fifty-four dollars which they owe Reuben Canterbury, Jr. for surveying and laying off the town of Louisa and making out a plan of same and it is further ordered that the same be paid out of the not executed by John Burgess to the said trustees for the purchase of lots in said town when the same shall fall due."

A copy test J. R. Ward Clerk. Mr. John Burgess will pay the above amount for laying out and surveying the town of Louisa what was allowed by court and the same shall be credited on your note. This 25 26th July, 1823.

J. B. Ward, Clerk. There it is, verbatim, et litteratim, et punctatim. The 25 in the above date was blotted, the writer evidently saw he had made a mistake and tried to wipe it out with his fingers.

Now read the following and you will see how John Burgess happened to owe the town of Louisa:

"$166. Twelve months after date for value received we jointly and severally promise to pay the Trustees of town of Louisa Lawrence County for the time being and their successors in office the sum of One hundred and Sixty Six dollars in consideration of the purchase money of Lots No. 39, 40, 41 and 42 in said Town Witness our hands and seals this 2d day of July 1823."

John Burgess Seal. James Marcum Seal. Test J. B. Ward.

Off the back of this note appears the following:

"I assign the within to Fred Moore by order of the Lawrence Circuit Court. March 18th 1834."

A Valentine Party.

If the patron saint of lovers could have been a guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Burchett on last Tuesday evening he would have rejoiced greatly that those who came after him knew how to rightly celebrate the day named for him. The delightful occasion was a Valentine Whist, and the decorations, the tally cards, the favors and the delicious refreshments gave pleasing evidence of appropriate remembrance of the day.

Big red hearts showed on portieres and curtains, tiny hearts marked the various progressions on the score cards, the almond dishes were laced with heart-shaped brims, and it is said that hearts were oftentimes trumps during the play.

"Come early and stay late" was enjoined upon those favored with invitations and the injunction was obeyed. The merry games continued until after eleven o'clock and then most delicious brick ice cream, cake and coffee were served. At midnight the happy throng dispersed, showering hearty expressions of their pleasure upon their hospitable hosts. Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Vinson, Mrs. Hannah Lackey, Miss Stella Conley, Miss Margaret Fletcher, Miss Emma Carey, M. B. Burns, George Roberts, Millard Carter and Dr. Wroten were the guests.

Dr. Biggs and Wife Entertain.

Holden, W. Va., Feb. 6.—The social event of the season in Holden was the dance given Friday night in honor of the guests at the home parties of Mesdames Dr. J. D. Biggs and Ed. Pritchard. The music was furnished by the Saxophone Orchestra of Holden, consisting of ten pieces. The hall was beautifully decorated in evergreens with electric light festooned across the hall. In the center was a huge Japanese umbrella covered with confetti and dozens of pink carnations and violets. After the dance was well in progress several electric fans from the gallery scattered broadcast these decorations among the dancers. Delightful refreshments were served at two o'clock, consisting of turkey, salad, creamed oysters, patties, lettuce and olive sandwiches, creamed sweetbreads, pickles and coffee.

After the dance was concluded favors consisting of bunches of red white and pink carnation and English violets were showered on the unexpected groups below the chandeliers.

Still Does the Stunt.

One of our citizens who occasionally wipes the dishes for his wife when she goes out to meet the Pinch Club, recently became tired of the job and refused, saying this was not a man's work. Not wishing to lose his help she brought out the Bible to convince him of his error and read as follows: "And I will wipe Jerusalem as a man wipeth a dish, wiping it, and turning it upside down." Kings, 23: 13.

Revival Begins.

The revival services at the Baptist Church will begin next Sunday morning. There will be the usual Sunday evening services and on Monday the services will be held at 2:30 and 6:30 p. m. The first service of Rev. W. H. Sledge will be on Monday night. Those who desire seats should come early. The singing will be under the charge of Rev. W. C. Roof.

Death of Dan McKenzie.

News has been received here of the death in Bartlett Texas, of Dan McKenzie. He died on the 14th of January after an illness of only three or four days of pneumonia. Mr. McKenzie was a native of Louisa, where he grew to manhood, he married a daughter of Robt. Lear, and is survived by his wife and one child.

Representative Langley, of Kentucky, has named Roy Wright, of Filletville, to act as one of the mounted aides in the Taft inaugural parade.

G. W. CASTLE

Announces His Candidacy for County Judge.

To the People of Lawrence County: I most respectfully announce myself a candidate for County Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic primary.

I deem it but proper that I should but indicate briefly my policy if elected, which is in part as follows:

I pledge that I will improve the roads and bridges to such extent that they will be up to a high standard.

Economy shall be the watch word all along the line.

I hold that the taxpayers have to earn the money with which they have to pay their taxes, and that all who receive that money shall earn it before it is paid them.

I will give my personal supervision to all necessary improvements, to the end that I may ascertain the correct value of them as well as to secure proper specifications, so that the work will be of value to the county, and to prevent exorbitant cost and worthless work.

All portions of the county shall have my careful consideration, and fair treatment in the necessary improvements needed.

I pledge that no illegal claim shall be saddled upon the taxpayers and that all claims shall be reasonable and legal.

I will render all assistance possible with my legal ability to protect the interest of the people whenever or wherever it may arise.

I pledge that the affairs of the county shall be administered to the end, that the present debt of about $25,000 will be paid without increasing the taxes or that the improvements indicated above will be neglected, but it shall be in the practice of economy and eternal vigilance over the affairs of the people.

I pledge that I will visit all portions of the county each year that I may know the needs of the various sections and the people.

I will act in concert with the County Attorney in all matters involving the interest of the county.

I will so conduct the affairs of the county that its credit will be unimpaired, both at home and abroad.

I will so arrange the finances of the county that cash will be paid for all needed improvements on roads and bridges, and thus save half the cost that is now being paid, and in this way be enabled to pay the money thus saved on the debts. It is highly important that this be done, as we are now paying yearly over $1,500 in interests on debts outstanding. It will be seen at a glance to save this amount of money and put it on improvements would add greatly to the improvements of the roads and bridges.

I pledge to be the Judge of the poor as well as the rich, as well as of all sections of the county.

If you should consider my efforts in years past as your County Attorney and with the pledges above and bringing to your service my ability as a lawyer, and practical ability and long studied needs of the people, and my ability to fill the office as your County Judge, I most respectfully solicit your support at the primary to be held some time in the near future.

Respectfully submitted,

G. W. CASTLE. Louisa, Ky., February, 12, 1909.

Bishop Burton Coming.

The many friends and admirers of the Rt. Rev. Lewis Burton, of Lexington, will be glad to learn that he will be in this city on Tuesday, March second. On this occasion he will preach at 7 o'clock p. m. in the M. E. Church. The people of Louisa are cordially invited.

A. A. Edgell, wife and son are occupying the Martin property on Lock avenue as a residence. Mr. Edgell is a traveling man well known to many Louisians. Our citizens extend a cordial welcome to these nice people.

Pink Domino Party.

A very pretty and unique party was given by Miss Ellen Skene last Thursday evening. It was "pretty," in that a host of pretty girls had gathered in the spacious rooms of the Skene home, and "unique," that you couldn't tell your neighbor from yourself until about nine o'clock. Everybody was masked in pink, the prevailing color of the evening. Not only were masks of pink worn, but gowns or robes of the same bright hue effectually hid the identity of the wearers. Piano music was furnished and several found occasion for the giddy waltz and the lively two-step. Everyone unmasked about nine o'clock, and many were the surprises revealed as mask after mask was removed from the face.

Shortly after the unmasking a sumptuous buffet lunch was served in the dining room, presided over by Misses Julia Snyder and Imogene Porter. Almost everything that could tempt or satisfy the hungry men and women was served abundantly. Besides the dancing several old time games were played.

A NEWS seeker after news asked in fair daisies if any card games were indulged in. She blushed and shyly said she thought one or two games of "hearts" were played.

The Pink Domino party was a very pleasant affair, greatly enjoyed by the guests and the fair young entertainer.

M. G. Berry for County Judge.

To the Democrats of Lawrence County:

Having been solicited by so many Democratic voters to make the race for County Judge, I submit myself to the will of the Democrats of Lawrence county for the nomination to make the race. Should I get the nomination I promise that I will use every honest means I can to gain my election, believing that I have as good a chance to succeed as any man who might offer.

Will further say this. I am aware of the responsibility that rests on a county Judge as an official, and that I believe I can fill that position with credit to myself and the county, or I am sure I would not offer myself for the nomination.

Very Truly Yours,

M. G. BERRY.

Hard on Jailers.

When the Court of Appeals decided a year or two ago that jailers must take care of the house without extra pay, a heavy weight was put upon the shoulders of the jailers. The last Legislature passed a bill allowing the Fiscal Court to make an allowance for that purpose. The Fiscal Court of this county, as well as that of most others, made this allowance and now a new decision of the higher court says it cannot apply to jailers now in office, so the money will have to be refunded. The judge, clerks, attorneys and other public officials will also have to pay for their fires.

Population Increasing

During the past few days there has been quite an influx of persons who have come to Louisa and taken residence. The News has mentioned some, and now it tells of two families who have rented the property of Rice McClure near the Masonic Hall. J. L. Polley and H. R. Alexander, both of Charleston, W. Va., both traveling salesmen, occupy this residence and will travel in this and adjoining counties. Louisa is glad to welcome them.

We understand that Dr. T. D. Burgess will leave Matewan about March 1st, for Louisa, Ky., where he will open a private sanatorium in connection with his practice. Few physicians are better known or respected for their ability in this section than is Dr. Burgess and his departure will be much regretted not only in Matewan but in the country at large. The doctor is assured of a fine practice where ever he goes. His practice at Matewan together with his property there has been sold to Dr. H. C. Golinga of Thacker, who will move to Matewan when Dr. Burgess leaves. —Williamson Enterprise.

DEATH.

Comes to the Relief of Stephen McClure.

Stephen M. McClure died in this city Monday night last at 9 o'clock. Notice of his illness has appeared from time to time in the columns of this paper, and those who read them are not surprised at this announcement. He had made a brave struggle for his life, paying thought and used every available means for the recovery of his health. The vain efforts have ceased, and today his mortal remains rest in Pine Hill cemetery.

Mr. McClure was born at Gallip on the 4th of July, 1873. In May, 1898, he was married to Miss Emma Guery, of St. Stephens, S. Carolina, and from this union are Louise, William and Matie, aged respectively 6, 4 and 2 years. The boy is named for his grandfather, who died in 1889. Addie, a sister of the deceased, died in 1885. Mr. McClure is survived by four brothers—Arnoldus, of Yuma, Arizona, J. B., of Louisa, Morris, of Central City, W. Va., and Jeff, of Williamson.

The funeral was held on Wednesday and was largely attended. It was held at the residence of Mrs. Lou McClure, the venerable mother of the deceased, and the exercises were conducted by the Rev. G. C. Hutchison, of the M. E. Church, South. Mr. McClure had been converted and received into this church. The deceased was a quiet, industrious man, of excellent character and habits, and his bereaved widow and little children, as well as a large circle of relatives and friends, will deeply feel the loss which they have sustained.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

John Burion, of West Liberty, Morgan county, was killed by a Chesapeake and Ohio train near Mt. Sterling.

The home of Mrs. Frank Lathrop, near Brentwood, Ark., was burned, and her two sons, William and Frank, aged 15 and 25 years, respectively, and George Burris, a young man who had been visiting at the house, were burned to death.

Sam Jett, of this city, has finished setting six miles of woven-wire fence around his immense goat ranch on the border of Wolfe and Menifee counties. He has also put up six houses and will push the business on an extensive scale.—Winchester Democrat.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 4.—Floyd Day and John G. White, both of Winchester, today completed a transaction here whereby they become the purchasers of the big Hargis department store.

The invoice has been made and Mrs. Hargis will let the property to the new proprietors at once. The stock invoices at $25,000.

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 6.—Friday March 5th, will be hangman's day in Louisiana. Eight men, the largest number ever hanged in one day, in the criminal record of Louisiana for many years.

As an indication of the large crop of Burley tobacco that will be grown in Kentucky this year requests are coming to the Agricultural Office for seed from counties in which tobacco has not been grown in large quantities before. These requests are coming in large numbers from Greenup and Carter counties by the Eastern part of the State, and Cumberland, Metcalfe and Barren counties in the Southern part of the State. It is likely that the growing of tobacco will spread to the mountain counties during the next few years.—Frankfort State Journal.

A small boy of Jett's creek was recently called in to view his newborn baby brother. He looked it over with dissatisfaction, and finally asked, "Mamma, where did this thing come from?" An angel brought it from Jackson." "Wuz you awake when he came?" "Certainly, Jimmie!" "Well then mamma, all that I've got to say is that you are 'dead easy.' I'd like to see any old angel put off such a looking thing on me. But I guess we are stuck unless I can work Ruben Ruggles over at Athol to trade one of his pigs for it sight unseen."—Breathitt County News.

One of our farmers hired a boy last week to help about the place. One morning before he started for Jackson he told the boy to go and salt the calf over in the pasture. The boy took about a quart of salt, rubbed it all over the calf, working it into the hair. A couple of colts in the pasture scented the salt and got after the calf. The farmer returned home soon after dinner and tried to catch the calf to wash it. But the calf thinking he wanted to lick, too, ran through a hole in the fence and disappeared down the road toward Smith Branch.—Jackson News.

A correspondent sends the following to a remote rural organ:

Our esteemed fellow citizen, Wm. P. Puckleton, has had several new "No Trespassing" signs erected on his place. We have had the pleasure of perusing the one facing the Hedgeville pike. It reads:

"NOTIS
Trespassers will be persekited to the full exten of 2 mean mungrel cogs which aint never been overly foshibut with strangurs un 1 double barl shoigun which aint loaded with no sofy pillers. dam if I aint gittin tired of this hel raisen on my property. Yours, respectful, BILL PUCKLETON."

Dayton, O., Feb. 6.—Almost in the shadow of Dayton police headquarters a fifth victim was found today in a half-filled cistern on the premises at one time occupied by Judge E. P. Matthews and family.

The home had long been deserted. To this structure the murderer had enticed the young beauty, despoiled her, then dragged the body to a basin at the rear of the house and thrust it into the murky water. The girl was Miss Lizzie Phillips, aged 18 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, of Van Buren, O.

Again the Dayton police are baffled, as they have been by nearly every one of the strangling horrors—five in all—that have taken place in this city in the last few years. There are hundreds who declare that not one of these mysteries has been cleared.

Hodgenville, Ky., Feb. 5.—Local preparations for the entertainment of the visitors at the Lincoln Centennial Celebration February 12 have been completed. Work at the farm is to the minute and everything is in readiness for the ceremonies to begin, so far as the Lincoln farm and Hodgenville are concerned. The foundation work has been finished, the corner stone to the national museum is on the grounds ready to be placed in position and the huge derrick which will swing the corner stone into place for the President is ready for use.

The corner stone is a massive piece of Connecticut granite weighing 3,000 pounds. It will be hoisted above the place where it is to rest by the steam derrick where the President will use a silver trowel in placing the cement on the granite resting place. The task of spreading the mortar will then be completed by an expert stone mason. The stone has a hole cut in it for the reception of a metal box into which will be placed papers giving full history of Abraham Lincoln from the cradle to the grave, and also of important information about the farm and the centennial ceremonies.

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM MANY STATES

Important News Gathered from Abroad for the Benefit of Our Readers.

John Burion, of West Liberty, Morgan county, was killed by a Chesapeake and Ohio train near Mt. Sterling.

The home of Mrs. Frank Lathrop, near Brentwood, Ark., was burned, and her two sons, William and Frank, aged 15 and 25 years, respectively, and George Burris, a young man who had been visiting at the house, were burned to death.

Sam Jett, of this city, has finished setting six miles of woven-wire fence around his immense goat ranch on the border of Wolfe and Menifee counties. He has also put up six houses and will push the business of an extensive scale—Winchester Democrat.

Jackson, Ky., Feb. 4.—Floyd Day and John G. White, both of Winchester, today completed a transaction here whereby they become the purchasers of the big Hargis department store.

The invoice has been made and Mrs. Hargis will let the property to the new proprietors at once. The stock invoices at $25,000.

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 6.—Friday March 5th, will be hangman's day in Louisiana. Eight men, the largest number ever hanged in one day, in the criminal record of Louisiana for many years.

As an indication of the large crop of Burley tobacco that will be grown in Kentucky this year requests are coming to the Agricultural Office for seed from counties in which tobacco has not been grown in large quantities before. These requests are coming in large numbers from Greenup and Carter counties in the Eastern part of the State, and Cumberland, Metcalfe and Barren counties in the Southern part of the State. It is likely that the growing of tobacco will spread to the mountain counties during the next few years.—Frankfort State Journal.

A small boy of Jett's creek was recently called in to view his newborn baby brother. He looked it over with dissatisfaction, and finally asked, "Mamma, where did this thing come from?" An angel brought it from Jackson." "Wuz you awake when he came?" "Certainly, I Jimmie!" "Well then mamma, all that I've got to say is 'that you are 'dead easy.' I'd like to see nny old angel put off such a looking thing on me. But I guess we are 'stuck unless I can work Reuben Ruggles over at Athol to trade one of his pigs for it sight unseen."—Breathitt County News.

One of our farmers hired a boy last week to help about the place. One morning before he started for Jackson he told the boy to go and salt the calf over in the pasture. The boy took about a quart of salt, rubbed it all over the calf, working it into the hair. A couple of colts in the pasture scented the salt and got after the calf. The farmer returned home soon after dinner and tried to catch the calf to wash it. But the calf thinking he wanted to lick, too, ran through a hole in the fence and disappeared down the road toward Smith Branch.—Jackson News.

A correspondent sends the following to a remote rural organ:

Our esteemed fellow citizen, Wm. P. Puckleton, has had several new "No Trespassing" signs erected on his place. We have had the pleasure of perusing the one facing the Hedgeville pike. It reads:

Trespassers will be persecuted to the full extent of 2 mean mongrel dogs which nint never been overly soshbul with strangers an i double barl shotgun which nint loaded with no sofy pillers. dam if i aint glittin tired of this hel raisen on my property. Yours, respectfal, BILL PUCKLETON."

Dayton, O., Feb. 6.—Almost in the shadow of Dayton police headquarters a fifth victim was found today in a half-filled cistern on the premises at one time occupied by Judge E. P. Matthews and family.

The home had long been deserted. To this structure the murderer had enticed the young beauty, despoiled her, then dragged the body to a basin at the rear of the house and thrust it into the murky water. The girl was Miss Lazzie Fullheart, aged 18 years, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fullheart, of Van-dalla, O.

Again the Dayton police are baffled, as they have been by nearly every one of the strangling horrors—five in all—that have taken place in this city in the last few years. There are hundreds who declare that not one of these mysteries has been cleared.

Hodgenville, Ky., Feb. 5.—Local preparations for the entertainment of the visitors at the Lincoln Centennial Celebration February 12 have been completed. Work at the farm is to the minute and everything is in readiness for the ceremonies to begin, so far as the Lincoln farm and Hodgenville are concerned. The foundation work has been finished, the corner stone to the national museum is on the grounds ready to be placed in position and the huge derrick which will swing the corner stone into place for the President is ready for use. The corner stone is a massive piece of Connecticut granite weighing 3,000 pounds. It will be hoisted above the place where it is to rest by the steam derrick where the President will use a silver trowel in placing the cement on the granite resting place. The task of spreading the mortar will then be completed by an expert stone mason. The stone has a hole cut in it for the reception of a metal box into which will be placed papers giving full history of Abraham Lincoln from the cradle to the grave, and also of important information about the farm and the centennial ceremonies.

Home Circle Column.

A Column Dedicated To Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle.

The ideal husband and the ideal wife are purely creations of the brain.

Happiness is a perfume that one cannot shed over another without a few drops falling on one's self.

Nothing is more charming to see than a young girl, simple, natural, gentle, refined, unaffected and polished in mind and manner. Children should be early taught politeness; not politeness and manners to put on the best dress. True politeness is that which springs from a nice mind and a kind heart, which refuses to wound others by acts of discourtesy. True politeness is rare and more valuable perhaps, than is often imagined.

Of course we love our own best, then why not show it? Why be affable and courteous to everyone except those to whom we owe the most? It is often owing to thoughtlessness and carelessness, but that makes it none the less criminal. Hiccupping and strife which goes on in many households is disgraceful, and from the inevitable unhappiness it causes. There are many ladies and gentlemen outwardly polished and agreeable, the favorites of society, and the life of all social gatherings they attend, who indulge in manners at home that would disgrace a savage. They seem perfectly transformed. Company manners are at last but a very thin veneer, the true nature is apt to come to the surface and the keen observer soon detects the sham.

SUNSHINE.

Sunshine in the lives and souls of people is just as potent in the realm of the home as the sunshine that drives darkness from our world and brings that warmth which is essential to life and growth in the vegetable kingdom. There is a convincing and vivifying power in soul sunshine; for as has been well said, men and women, youth and children, seek the friendship of the sunny-faced. All social circles welcome cheerfulness. A sunny face is an open pleasure to hearts and home. Eyebrow are lightened, care dispelled, sorrow banished, and hope made to reign triumphant where fear and doubt, and despondency held high carnival. Your own life will be sweetened, your own joys heightened, by your perennial, heaven-lighted, sunny face.

THE BEAUTY OF PLAIN LIVING.

We love to see people live well, says a thoughtful writer, and to dress respectably, and enjoy themselves, but there is a happy mean in all these things, and when that is pressed in the direction of extravagance, the people distress and involve themselves and diminish their ability to do good. For the sake of keeping up the styles, people live far above their income, harass themselves with debt, wear themselves out, and keep themselves in constant nervous strain by giving fashionable dinners, fashionable entertaining, and making fashionable calls. How much better is a plain, quiet, Christian home where all is peace and cordiality, the neighbors heartily welcome to come and go at will, and freed from pestering, senseless conventionalities of fashionable life. Why should our earthly life, which at best cannot continue a hundred years, be fretted and burdened and worn out prematurely by vain efforts to ape the manners of the idle, irrelevant, self-seeking, rich devotee of pleasure? God has put us here for a nobler purpose than this, and those do well who strive to place His service above all else.

NEGLECT OF HOME DUTIES.

Many of our business men are tempted to neglect their home duties. How often is it that the store and the home seem to clash, but there ought not to be any collision. It is often the case that the father is the mere treasurer of the family.

a sort of agent to see that they have dry goods and groceries. The work of family government he does not touch. Once or twice a year he calls the children up on a Sabbath afternoon when he has a half an hour he does not know exactly what to do with, and in that half hour he disciplines and corrects their faults and gives them a great deal of good advice, and then wonders all the rest of the year that his children do not do better when they have the wonderful advantage of that semi-annual castigation.

The family table, which ought to be the place for pleasant discussion and cheerfulness, often becomes the place of perfunctory expedient. There he any blessing asked at all, it is cut off at both ends and with the hand on the carving knife. He counts on his fingers, making estimates of the literatures of the restaurant. The work done, the hat goes to the head and he starts down the street before the family have arisen he has bound up another bundle of goods and says to the customer: "Anything more I can do for you today, sir?" A man has more responsibility than those which are discharged by putting competent instructors over his children and giving them a drawing master and music teacher. The physical culture of the child will not be attended unless the father looks to it. He must sometimes lose his dignity. He must unlearn his joints. He must sometimes lead them out to their sports and forget the severe duties of life sometimes, to fly the kite, and trundle the hoop, and chase the ball, and jump the rope with his children, ought never to have been tempted out of a crusty and unredemptable solitariness. If you want to keep your children away from places of sin, you can only do it by making your home attractive. You may preach sermons and advocate reforms and denounce wickedness, and yet your children will be captivated by the glittering saloon of sin unless you make your home a brighter place than any other place on earth to them. Oh, gather all charms into your house. If you can afford it, bring books and pictures and cheerful entertainments to the household. But, above all, teach those children, not by half an hour each year on the Sabbath day, but day by day and every day teach them that religion is a great gladness, that it throws chains of gold about the neck, and it takes no spring from the foot, no blitheness from the heart, no sparkle from the eye, no rug from the laughter, but that "her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace."

A Candidate for Representative.

Brig H. Harris, of Catlettsburg, is a candidate for the Legislature from Boyd and Lawrence. The Catlettsburg Tribune says of him: "Brig," as he is known throughout the length and breadth of Big Sandy Valley has been a life-long Republican, of the more conservative order, a tireless worker and voter in the ranks and with one single exception when he was County Superintendent of schools of Johnson county, has never asked nor held a political office. He made one of the best records while Superintendent of Johnson county ever made by a superintendent in the state and his administration is still pointed to with pride by citizens of Johnson county, without regard to party lines. Mr. Harris, if nominated by his party for the legislature would without doubt be elected, and the people would have in him an able and safe representative.

Home-made Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatism Medicine for Readers.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, readily overcome. Here is the recipe. Try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

These ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

Home Circle Column.

A Column Dedicated To Tired Mothers as They Join The Home Circle.

The ideal husband and the ideal wife are purely creations of the brain.

Happiness is a perfume that one cannot shed over another without a few drops falling on one's self.

Nothing is more charming to see than a young girl, simple, natural, gentle, refined, unaffected and polished in mind and manner. Children should be early taught politeness; not politeness and manners to put on the best dress. True politeness is that which springs from a nice mind and a kind heart, which refuses to wound others by acts of discourtesy. True politeness is rare and more valuable perhaps, than is often imagined.

Of course we love our own best, then why not show it? Why be affable and courteous to everyone except those to whom we owe the most? It is often owing to thoughtlessness and carelessness, but that makes it none the less criminal. Bickering and strife which goes on in many households is disgraceful, and from the inevitable unhappiness it causes. There are many ladies and gentlemen outwardly polished and agreeable, the favorites of society, and the life of all social gatherings they attend, who indulge in manners at home that would disgrace a savage. They seem perfectly transformed. Company manners are at last, but a very thin veneer, the true nature is apt to come to the surface and the keen observer soon detects the sham.

SUNSHINE.

Sunshine in the lives and souls of people is just as potent in the realm of the home as the sunshine that drives darkness from our world and brings that warmth which is essential to life and growth in the vegetable kingdom. There is a convincing and vivifying power in soul sunshine; for as has been well said, men and women, youth and children, seek the friendship of the sunnyside. All social circles welcome cheerfulness. A sunny face is an open pleasure to hearts and home lily-budgens are lightened, care is dispelled, sorrow banished, and hope made to reign triumphant where fear and doubt, and despondency held high carnival. Your own life will be sweetened, your own joys heightened, by your perennial, heaven-lighted, sunny face.

THE BEAUTY OF PLAIN LIVING.

We love to see people live well, in a thoughtful writer, and to dress respectably, and enjoy themselves, but there is a happy mean in all these things, and when that is passed in the direction of extravagance, the people distress and enslave themselves and diminish their ability to do good. For the sake of keeping up the styles, people live far above their income, harass themselves with debt, wear themselves out, and keep themselves in constant nervous strain by giving fashionable dinners, fashionable entertaining, and making fashionable calls. How much better is a plain, quiet, Christian home where all is peace and cordiality, the neighbors heartily welcome to come and go at will, and freed from pestering, senseless conventionalities of fashionable life. Why should our earthly life, which at best cannot continue a hundred years, be fretted and burdened and worn out prematurely by vain efforts to ape the manners of the idle, irreligious, self-seeking, rich devotee of pleasure? God has put us here for a nobler purpose than this, and those do well who strive to place his service above all else.

NEGLECT OF HOME DUTIES.

Many of our business men are tempted to neglect their home duties. How often is it that the store and the home seem to clash, but there ought not to be any collision. It is often the case that the father is the mere treasurer of the family.

A man has more responsibility than those which are discharged by putting competent instructors over his children and giving them a drawing master and music teacher. ## OLD PAPERS.

There is also on the back of this venerable note the following credit: "On this note by Fifty four dollars the amount allowed the Trustees of the town of Louisville for having the said surveyed by Reuben Canterbury as per order of the Judge of the Lawrence Circuit court."

These lots, 39, 40, 41 and 42, composed at the time they were sold the square bounded by Main Cross, Madison and Franklin streets and the alley between the house owned by Robert Burchett and Mrs. Billups, or in other words where the Odd Fellows' hall is. The price was probably considered their full value at that time.

There is another and to many it will probably prove to be the most interesting of these unique papers. It was written during the days of African slavery and in a slave State, and is nothing more or less than the legal evidence of the transfer for a stipulated sum of a human being from one owner to another. Very many of our citizens, even the younger people, remember "Uncle" Lem Burgess. While Uncle Lem died as a sort of one of the Burgess family, he was not after the proclamation of the man, he had not no will.

Hodgenville, Ky., Feb. 12, 1909. Preparations for the entertainment of the visitors at the Lincoln Centennial Celebration February 12, 1909, have been completed. Work at the farm is to the minute and everything is in readiness for the ceremonies to begin, so far as the Lincoln farm and Hodgenville are concerned. The foundation work has been finished, the corner stone to the national museum is on the grounds ready to be placed in position and the huge derrick which will swing the corner stone into place for the President is ready for use. The corner stone is a massive piece of Connecticut granite weighing 3,000 pounds. It will be hoisted above the place where it is to rest by the steam derrick where the President will use a silver trowel in placing the cement on the granite resting place. The task of spreading the mortar will then be completed by an expert stone mason. The stone has a hole cut in it for the reception of a metal box into which will be placed papers giving full history of Abraham Lincoln from the cradle to the grave, and also of important information about the farm and the centennial ceremonies.

A Popular Young Woman Dead.

A year ago, nearly, the Virginian told of the marriage of Miss Bessie Worley to Mr. Charles Picklesimer, of Louisville, Ky. Today it tells the story of the death of that popular and estimable young woman. After marriage, as before, her life and manners were full of sunshine, gladness and mirth. As an employee at the telephone exchange, she made everyone who came in contact with her a friend, by her gentle manners and accommodating disposition. When she became a bride she carried to her new home and new life the best wishes of all who knew her. A short but fatal illness terminated her life January 9th, at Louisville. The remains reached Abingdon on Sunday afternoon and were taken at once to the home of the grief-stricken parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Worley, her own former home. Monday afternoon at two o'clock funeral services were conducted at the family home by Rev. J. A. Burrow, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. Beginning with "Asleep in Jesus," a choir of selected voices sang a number of beautiful hymns. Fragrant flowers in many appropriate designs from loving and admiring friends, were placed upon the casket and grave. A very large number gathered at the funeral to pay tribute of respect, or loving memory, to the bride of less than a year.

The pall-bearers were of her former friends: Messrs. William Buckley, Elbert Clifton, Eldridge Clark, Iven Keller, Dr. Edward Hines and Samuel Smith. The remains were accompanied from her late home to Abingdon by her mother Mrs. Worley, who had gone to her bedside, Mr. and Mrs. John Worley, and Mr. and Mrs. Picklesimer, of Louisville, and Mrs. Andrew Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Duncan, of Bluefield, W. Va.

The deceased is survived by her husband, father and mother, Mrs. Robert Gray, Miss Maude Worley, Messrs. David, George and Leon Worley, of this place; Mr. John Worley, of Louisville, Ky., and Mr. Andrew Taylor, of Bluefield, Va. The sorrow of the town is with the bereaved family.—Abingdon, Virginian.

The Lawrence County Club of the K. N. C. will hold a reception in honor of the students from surrounding counties and States, at the Court House Friday evening, February 19, 1909, at 7 p. m. All are invited to come and every effort will be made by the club to insure a good time for everyone. The date chosen is the birthday of Albert Holbrook, the founder of independent normalism, and no flatter tribute could be paid this great apostle of learning than the celebration of his birth by a school of whose principles he was the originator.

There are probably few, even of those most interested in educational work, who fully apprehend the great success of the Kentucky Normal College. But when we recognize the fact that between seven and eight hundred eager and expectant students are under the institution of her splendid corps of teachers, when we look into these hundreds of faces, glowing with that confidence indicative of energy and vitality and expressive of a truer knowledge as we do that there is being developed behind each smiling countenance an intellectual and ethical dynamic, which, strengthened by the strong hand of learning, will impel the individual to seek and attain the higher plane of life, than we may have some conception of the vast good being done by the Kentucky Normal College. It is not the wish of this institution to flourish because of the multiplication of similar colleges. It is no doubt due to this unselfish course that she owes her present prosperity.

With a wish to co-operate with all schools in furthering what should be a common interest, with a feeling of friendliness and best wishes for the success of all other schools conceived in a desire for general culture and refinement, the K. N. C. strives incessantly to develop the citizenship of this and other States. That this work has not been in vain is seen in the result that over a dozen different counties and a third as many states have sent their daughters and sons here to receive the splendid training made possible by the great facilities of the Kentucky Normal College.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles. A Louisa Citizen Shows How to cure Them.

—X—

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only muscular weakness; when urinary trouble sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they may lead to Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or disordered kidneys. Louisa people testify to permanent cures.

G. E. Pigg, of Louisa, Ky., says: "I cannot find words to express my gratitude to Doan's Kidney Pills. For a number of years I suffered from dull pains in my back and was unable to get relief. My kidneys did not perform their functions properly, and were the cause of all my suffering. The kidney secretions were profuse, highly colored and contained a sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills were at last procured and I began their use. They cured me in a short time and I never tire of recommending them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

EFFECTIVE RECIPE.

Home-made Kidney, Bladder and Rheumatism Medicine for Readers:

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe. Try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.

These ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst form of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure rheumatism by forcing the kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

Washington's Plague Spots. He in the low, marshy bottoms of the Potomac, the breeding ground of malaria germs. These germs cause chills, fever and ague, biliousness, jaundice, lassitude, weakness and general debility and bring suffering and death to thousands yearly. ## NOTICE.

To the traders and trappers of Lawrence County:

A big fellow whispered in my ear over the phone that he wanted me to travel all over Lawrence county, Kentucky, and buy furs and will pay highest market price until March 15th. I will pay for black skunks, large number one, $1.50 to $1.70 until February 15th 1909. After this date at a fair value. I will travel over the country and you will know H. J. Pack, from other candidates by the blowing of his brass bugle pealing forth its plaintive requiems. At still times you can hear it two or three miles. Bring your hides and pelts to my one horse wagon and get your cash for them. I want 2,000 skunks and 2,000 muskrats. I have already been a help to the citizens of Lawrence county to thousands of dollars and expect this ad to be thousands of dollars advantage in the county for the people. And figure on a thousand skunks at $1.70 each. Vote for your interests and you will do justice to yourselves and your boys. Come out for me and you will never regret it.

Yours Respect,

H. J. PACK.

From Missouri.

Shimmons, Mo., Feb 1st, 1909.

Seeing the call from one of your correspondents to the News for a letter from Southern Missouri I will try to tell you something of what I have learned about this country.

I left Louisa November the 7th 1908, and arrived at my destination at Cabell, Texas county, Mo., I am in the South Central part of this State. The land is rolling with River (Missouri). The people here tell me they raise from 60 to 80 bushels of corn per acre, and potatoes some fine bottom land along the 20 to 100 bushels per acre. Wheat does not do so well. I would say this is the land of the healthy Ozarks and the home of the big red apple, peaches and most all other kinds of fruit. I find the people here as sociable as I ever met anywhere.

I have not learned very much about the school system here, though the schools seem to be getting along nicely. The school houses are all comfortable and well furnished, which I think speaks well for the people.

We are having plenty of winter here. The cold weather began Jan. 5th, and the people here say it is the coldest weather they have had for twenty-five years.

What is a cold in the head? Nothing to worry about if you treat it with Ely's Cream Balm. Neglected, the cold may grow into catarrh, and the air-passages be so inflamed that you have to fight for every breath. It is true that Ely's Cream Balm masters catarrh, promptly. But you know the old saying about the ounce of prevention. Therefore use Cream Balm when the cold in the head shows itself. All druggists, 50c, or mailed by Ely Bros., 60 Warren street, New York.

In Memory.

Death has again visited our community and taken from the home of Bro. John C. L. Moore, his youngest son, Eli Moore, aged about 23 years. His sickness was of short duration. He died of double pneumonia.

Eli was a model young man. He was loved by his many friends both old and young. He stayed at home with his parents and helped them in the way of finance. He was a good worker and strictly honest.

Bro. Moore and heart broken wife have our deepest sympathy and pray God's blessing upon them.

The Facts About Pe-ru-na.

Is Peruna an alcoholic beverage in disguise? Is it possible to use Peruna as a substitute for whiskey? Do people buy Peruna and use it as a toddy, or a bitter, or a bracer?

It would be the easiest thing in the world for any one to demonstrate the falsity of such statements. Let any one go to the drug store and purchase a bottle of Peruna. Let him undertake to use it as a beverage, or take this remedy in doses considerably larger than those prescribed on the bottle. Would the result be alcoholic intoxication? Nothing of the sort. Let any one try it and see.

Peruna is a medical compound quite heavily loaded with medicinal ingredients. If taken in doses larger than prescribed it would produce a positive drug effect. No one could take it as a beverage. If any one doubts these statements, try it and see. We know that Peruna cannot be used as a beverage; that it will not intoxicate; that it cannot be used as a substitute for liquor. We guarantee that PERUNA CONTAINS NO CHEAP WHISKEY—OR ANY OTHER WHISKEY, for that matter.

It contains a small per cent. of cologne spirits, absolutely essential to dissolve and hold in solution medicinal ingredients, but the drugs contained in Peruna prohibit its use as a beverage. It would be the easiest thing in the world for any one to demonstrate this if they chose to do so.

Peruna is sold everywhere. THE INGREDIENTS ARE PLAINLY PRINTED ON EACH BOTTLE. It has been said over and over again that chemists have analyzed Peruna and found it to contain only cubebs and whiskey. Now we challenge any chemist to demonstrate any such statement. Let any one who has even a smattering knowledge of chemistry purchase a bottle of Peruna and see whether or not it contains whiskey, find out for himself whether or not it is composed of cheap whiskey and cubebs. Of course, cubebs is one of the ingredients of Peruna, but there are many other ingredients. It contains hydrastis canadensis, corydalis formosa, collinsonia, and at least four other medicinal ingredients. To be sure, no chemist could so analyze Peruna as to be able to identify the various medicinal ingredients. This is beyond the ability of any chemist. But any ordinary chemist would be able to say that Peruna is heavily loaded with medicinal ingredients of some kind in addition to cubebs.

Now why are these statements repeated when their falsity could be so easily demonstrated? Simply because there is continued hostility toward Peruna on the part of the medical profession. Very likely the magazines which took up the crusade against Peruna and denounced it as a cheap beverage were misled by statements of the medical profession. Probably they were sincere in their attitude towards it. But now, after all these things have been said and refuted, it would seem to be in order for such people to use a little fairness and common sense in the matter.

Every time any one says that Peruna is nothing but cheap whiskey and cubebs he is telling a lie, an absolute falsehood. Most people intend to speak the truth. But the prevalent habit of repeating other people's statements, without investigation as to their truth, has led many well-meaning people to say these false things about Peruna.

Used according to the directions on the bottle, PERUNA IS A SAFE AND RELIABLE CATARRH REMEDY, but, like any other good medicine, if taken in excess of those doses, it will produce drug effects very unpleasant to the person who takes it.

It is therefore up to every honest person to quit making such statements concerning Peruna, or acknowledge that he is repeating slanders about which he knows nothing. One might just as well say that Castor Oil is an intoxicant; that if taken in large enough doses it will operate as a "booze." If people never tried to see, but simply repeated such statements about Castor Oil, the majority of people would come to believe them. It is no easier to demonstrate such a statement about Castor Oil than it would be about Peruna.

Any one who takes Peruna knows that such statements are false. To say that Peruna is cheap whiskey and cubebs may constitute good material for jokes on the vaudeville stage, but there is no excuse for any one who pretends to be truthful saying over again this oft-repeated falsehood.
